

Living Well With and Beyond Cancer Conference 2023

In-person and Online

Saturday 18th
November 2023

Clayton Hotel,
Silver Springs, Cork

cancer.ie/LivingWell
1800 200 700

This conference is proudly sponsored by

Conference Agenda

Time	Description
9.30 - 10.30	Registration
10.30 - 11.00	Opening Plenary Welcome - MC Dr Eddie Murphy, Clinical Psychologist Update on the work of the Irish Cancer Society, our supports, services, and research priorities - Corrinne Hasson, Director of Services, Irish Cancer Society & Claire Kilty Ph.D, Head of Research, Irish Cancer Society
11.00 - 11.15	Comfort Break
11.15 - 13.00	Mid-Morning Plenary Volunteer Conference will continue in Harbour Suite, First Floor Diet Throughout the Cancer Journey - Veronica McSharry, Oncology Dietician Advances in Genitourinary Cancer Treatments - Professor Jack Gleeson, Associate Professor in Medical Oncology, UCC and Consultant Medical Oncologist, CUH Financial Reality of Cancer - Pádraig Ó Ruairc, Survivorship and Community Supports Manager, Irish Cancer Society & Emma Harte, Policy Coordinator, Irish Cancer Society
13.00 - 14.00	Lunch
14.00 - 16.00	Afternoon Plenary Exercise throughout the Cancer Journey - Colm O'Meara, ExWell Medical Coping Well With Cancer - Jennifer Kilkus, Principal Clinical Psychologist, Psycho-Oncology, University Hospital Waterford Survivor Stories - a panel of survivors from our community share their experiences

Irish Cancer Society Exhibition

Meet representations from Irish Cancer Society Support Line, Volunteering, Research, Advocacy, Fundraising and Cancer Awareness teams in the ground floor and first floor lobby areas.

Look Good Feel Better

Demonstrations taking place at 11.45 and 14.00 in Harbour 6, places are limited, please check availability at reception.

Practical Support and Financial Solutions Services Clinic

Members of our team are available throughout the day for one to one financial and practical guidance in Harbour 10.

