GRAB A MATE. DO A DARE. FIGHT CANCER.
FUNDRAISING GUIDE

THANK YOU FOR TAKING PART IN TODAY FM'S DARE TO CARE IN SUPPORT OF THE IRISH CANCER SOCIETY!!

This year we are back with a bang and bigger than ever! As Dare to Care was such a huge success last year, we are delighted to be teaming up with Today FM again to help families across Ireland affected by cancer and we are delighted to have you on board too!

So here's how it works, we are asking you and the Irish public to quite literally dare your friends and family to care, have some fun and a few laughs along the way. In doing so, you will be funding free cancer services and lifesaving research. You'll be giving hope to those affected by cancer and their families, like Noelle.

Noelle from Tipperary discovered a lump in her breast just before her 38th birthday. She was diagnosed with early stage grade 3 HER2 positive breast cancer. She had a mastectomy and breast reconstruction, followed by chemotherapy and radiotherapy. Noelle was on Herceptin for almost a year before receiving the news that she was cancer free.

"HERCEPTIN WAS A LIFE SAVER FOR ME BECAUSE MY CANCER WAS SO AGGRESSIVE, AND THAT WAS ONLY POSSIBLE BECAUSE OF CANCER RESEARCH, WHICH BRINGS WITH IT A HUGE MESSAGE OF HOPE."

– NOELLE, CANCER SURVIVOR, TIPPERARY

Thanks to people like you free care services and ground breaking cancer research can be funded and will save lives. So start gathering your friends and family and let's Dare to Care this September!

Let's show cancer what's what!

Warmest regards,

Mark Mellett
Head of Fundraising

P.S. Don't forget, there are heaps of resources on cancer.ie/daretocare to help you raise as much money as possible. Take advantage!
