64 out of 100 smokers smoke every day – 84 of 100 of smokers over the age of 65 smoke every day.

64 out of 100 Smokers

92 out of 100 smokers know that smoking causes lung cancer.

92 out of 100 Smokers Know

41 of 100 smokers know that lung cancer is the biggest cancer killer.

41 out of 100 Smokers Know

31 out of 100 smokers are unconcerned about being diagnosed with the disease.

31 out of 100 Smokers Unconcerned about diagnosis

Over 7 in 10 smokers have never spoken with a doctor or pharmacist about their lung health.

Over 7 in 10 Smokers

1 in 10 smokers don't think there is much a doctor can do for their lung health.

1 in 10 Smokers

There are certain things that smokers said would stop them going to their doctor with one or more symptoms of lung cancer.

- 1 in 3 smokers said they would be worried about what they would be told
- 1 in 5 smokers don't want to get a lecture on giving up smoking
- 1 in 5 smokers said a visit to their doctor is too expensive

21 per cent don't think their symptoms are serious enough.

21 out of 100 people

For information and support on how to quit smoking, call the HSE Quit Team on Freefone 1800 201 203 or visit www.quit.ie