Women and Smoking: Time to Face the Crisis
Ashling Hotel, Parkgate Street, Dublin 8
Wednesday, 4th July 2012

PROGRAMME

10.00am Registration
10.30am-12.20pm PLENARY SESSIONS

10.30am Introduction and welcome

10.45am Health Inequalities in Ireland Today
Sinead Pentony, Head of Policy, TASC

11.00am Women, Smoking and Inequalities
Dr Jude Robinson
Reader in the Anthropology of Health and Illness, Department of Sociology, Social Policy and Criminology, University of Liverpool

11.30am Marketing Tobacco to Women
Professor Amanda Amos
Professor of Health Promotion, Centre for Population Health Sciences, University of Edinburgh

11.50am Health Effects of Smoking
Dr Finbarr O’Connell
Consultant Respiratory Physician, St James’s Hospital, Dublin

12.05pm Questions & Answers

12.20pm-1.20pm Lunch Served
1.20pm-2.20pm  WORKSHOPS

Workshop 1:  Smoking and Pregnancy
Ms. Denise Cahill - Senior Health Promotion Officer
Ms. Joan O’Sullivan - Smoking Cessation Officer

Workshop 2:  Tobacco Control - Advocacy Workshop
Ms. Rachel Wright
Advocacy Officer, Irish Cancer Society

Workshop 3:  X-HALE Youth Awards - tackling smoking with young people in hard to reach communities
Ms. Joanne Vance
Senior Health Promotion Officer, Irish Cancer Society

2.20pm - 2.35pm  Coffee Break
2.35 pm -3.35pm  Group Consultations
3.35pm  Feedback & Closing Remarks
3.50pm  End